Support for Students with Disabilities

- A student is the best expert in determining the scope and form of assistance needed to fully take advantage of the education process and knowledge acquisition.
- Each situation is different - we encourage you to review the support catalogue available on: <https://www.sggw.edu.pl/katalog-wsparcia/> .
- You can benefit from support or be a support for your colleagues –The ASD Tutoring Centre soon at SGGW
- A student with a certified disability may apply for a scholarship for students with disabilities – application should be submitted at the dean's office (to the 10th day of each month)

Support for Students with Disabilities

How to get support?

- Check out the support catalogue
- Prepare an application addressed to the appropriate Vice-Dean for Didactics

If necessary, you can contact the faculty Coordinator, Plenipotentiary, or the Section for People with Disabilities – let's talk and we will help you dispel your doubts.

- When submitting an application, please bring your medical certificate certifying eligibility to the requested support (we just want to see it)
- Submit an application for support and wait for a response

Support for Students with Disabilities

At SGGW you are not alone, you can always ask for help:

- Faculty Coordinator for Students with Disabilities:
- Rector's Plenipotentiary for Students with Disabilities
- Section for People with Disabilities
- Support Coordinator for People with ASD

The beginning of the student's life brings a lot of changes, and not everything works out in your favour. Do not be afraid to ask for support.

Remember, you may get a therapist's assistance at SGGW Health Centre [NZOZ SGGW]
